

3-Day Hike: Spullersee and Formarinsee | Klösterle

Klostertal
Vorarlberg

HARD REFRESHMENTS PANORAMIC MULTI-DAY STAGE TOUR

Tour description

A challenging, scenic three-day hike in the Lechquellengebirge that connects Spullersee and Formarinsee via two Alpine Club huts; it requires alpine experience, sure-footedness, and good physical fitness, particularly during the crossing of the Gehrengrat.

A challenging, scenic three-day hike in the Lechquellengebirge. The route connects two of Vorarlberg's most famous high-mountain lakes—Spullersee and Formarinsee—with two historic Alpine Club huts. In addition to long ascents and descents, crossing the Gehrengrat ridge in particular requires alpine experience, sure-footedness, and good physical condition.

Stage 1:

Starting from Klösterle am Arlberg, the trail initially leads uphill along well-maintained hiking trails toward Spullersee. The ascent passes through sections of forest and open alpine meadows, offering sweeping views of the Klostertal valley. Once you reach Spullersee, follow the shoreline before the trail climbs gently to the Ravensburger Hütte (1,948 m) above. There, you can enjoy a cozy stop for refreshments and an overnight stay with views of the lake and the surrounding mountains.

Hiking time: approx. 5–6 hours

Difficulty: moderate

Stage 2:

The second day forms the alpine heart of the tour. From the Ravensburger Hütte, the trail climbs steadily toward the Gehrengrat. The traverse follows narrow, sometimes steep paths and requires sure-footedness and a head for heights. Once at the top, sweeping panoramic views of the Lechquellengebirge open up. The subsequent descent leads through high-alpine terrain down to Formarinsee. Directly on the lake lies the Freiburger Hütte (1,918 m), which invites you to spend the night and concludes the day against an impressive mountain backdrop.

Walking time: approx. 6–7 hours

Difficulty: challenging

Stage 3:

On the final day, you leave Formarinsee and head down into the valley. The descent follows well-marked mountain and forest trails through alpine landscapes and ravines toward Dalaas. The trail is varied and offers frequent beautiful views down into the Klostertal valley. The three-day tour ends in Dalaas, from where bus connections are available to the surrounding towns.

Walking time: approx. 5–6 hours

Difficulty: moderate

Note: The times listed are approximate. Depending on weather or other factors, the walking time may be shorter or longer.
